

CASTELLARI

B12 Shears

A professional double bladed shear with an interchangeable cutting unit and traditional grinding face with its flat back is ideal for close and precise cutting that prevents bark scarring or the creation of new sprouts.

The branch blocking plate speeds up pruning operations. These pruners are ideal for fruit trees. The universal grip of the shears allows both right-handed and left-handed operators to use them.

